From the Assistant Priest & School Chaplain

Nau mai, haere mai,

Welcome most warmly to our Church and School family. First of all, I want to say how thankful I am that we have been able to be all together with COVID restrictions slowly being lifted. It was wonderful earlier in the school year when, after some time, the whole school (not Juniors versus Seniors) could gather together to worship and pray. I am grateful we have the opportunity to acknowledge each other and what we mean to each other as well as worshipping and praying as one.

I continue to delight in being with, learning with and worshipping with the children of St Michael's School. They are a bright and energetic bunch and never fail to probe me with the most insightful and thoughtful questions. If you want your faith and theology challenged ask a bunch of 12-year-olds why they don't believe in God!!

We continue to be blessed by the relationship that exists between the Parish and the School.

The passing of the new statute last year at Synod opened a new way for us to move forward together. There have been some bumps in the road, but both Father Peter Beck and I feel great breakthroughs have been made. Certainly, my role in the School this year is expanded and I am grateful for the time I have with the children. I am also grateful for Miss Tattershaw and all the School staff who help me do my ministry and put up with many emails!

Of course, we are here today to celebrate together in the founding of the School all those many years ago. All we do, and are, now would never have happened without those early determined and gracious women and men. In its long history the School has had many ups and downs, but it has prevailed and I am honoured to be part of School life at this present, very abundant time. My main prayer for today is that we have all fitted in the Church building!

It is good to acknowledge and honour our past and how it got us here. So, it goes without saying that our greatest gratitude goes to God the original founder and to Jesus Christ the sacrificial founder of our new relationship with God and to the Holy Spirit the eternal founder that helps us when we call.

Welcome, welcome, welcome to you all once more.

Mother Meg

Amine.

In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The Lord be with you. The Lord bless you.

As we spend time with God today, first we take time to be still, and to think about our unfaithfulness to God; those times when we have not loved or cared about God, or ourselves, or our friends the way we should. Let us be silent together.

Kyrie: Kyrie, eleison, Kyrie, eleison. Christe, eleison, Christe eleison. Kyrie, eleison, Kyrie, eleison.

Priest:

May we, who were once far away from Jesus, be brought nearer to him, who gives us forgiveness and peace. May God forgive us, and help us when we make mistakes and through the cross of Christ, God love you, ✠ God forgive you and set you free.

Collect:

Eternal God, protector of all who put their trust in you, without you nothing is strong, nothing is holy; fill us with your strength and love, that with you to show us the way, we may use the good things in our world, to remember to live lives of goodness and love following your Son Jesus Christ Lord of All. Amen.

The Proclamation of the Word

Reading: (sit) Acts 10: 34-43 Sophia Tolerton (Head Girl)

Then Peter began to speak to them: 'I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ—he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.'

Hear what the Spirit is saying to the church. Thanks be to God.

Priest: We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.
We who are many are one body, for we all share the one bread.

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, grant us your peace.

The Communion Antiphon and Invitation:

Without the love of God all that we build will fall.
This is the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world.
Happy are we who are called to his supper.

Lord, I am not worthy to receive you, but only say the word and I shall be healed.

The bell is rung for Holy Communion, to which all baptised Christians are invited. Communion in one kind will be administered from the front step at the centre of the aisle. Please leave your seat by the side aisle, and approach the centre aisle from the rear crossing. Please leave a 2m distance between yourself and others and please use the hand sanitizer. when receiving the sacrament, please stretch your arms horizontally as much as possible. Please ask Priest for gluten free wafers if required.

Communion Anthem: O how amiable are thy dwellings R Vaughan Williams sung by St Michael's Choir and Young Voices

Communion Hymn:

A new commandment I give unto you: that you love one another as I have loved you, that you love one another as I have loved you.
By this shall all know that you are my disciples: if you have love one for another, by this shall all know you are my disciples: if you have love one for another.

Prayer after Communion:

Holy and blessed God, as you give us the body and blood of your Son, guide us with your Holy Spirit, that we may honour you not only with our lips but also in our lives. This we ask in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Notices: Announced.

Priest:

The Lord be with you:
The Lord bless you.

The awesome peace of God keep your hearts and minds like Christ Jesus and may the blessing of God Almighty ✠ Father, Son and Holy Spirit, be with you, those you love and those you need to learn to love, this day and evermore. Amen.

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Send your Holy Spirit so that this bread and wine can be for us ✠ the body and blood of Jesus, and through this food give us strength to live as your people. We are here because on the night before he died Jesus shared a meal with his friends.

There he took some bread and gave thanks to you.

He broke it into pieces, and gave it to them.

“This is my body,” he said, “Do this, and know that I am with you.”

Later, he took a cup of wine and gave thanks to you.

He shared it with them, and said, “This is my blood, which brings new life.

Do this, and know that I am with you.”

Deacon:

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith:

Glory to you, Lord Christ; your death we show forth;
your resurrection we proclaim; your coming we await;
Amen! Come Lord Jesus.

And so, remembering Jesus, who died,
was raised to new life by you,
and is alive forever, we are glad to share that life and live in him.

Help us to care for your world and for each other in the way that Jesus shows us.

Until he comes again, with all your people in every time and every land we worship you in songs of everlasting praise.

Blessing, honour and glory be yours, here and everywhere, now and for ever. Amen.

Silence

The Lord's Prayer:

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come,
your will be done, on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever.

Amen.

Gradual Hymn: (stand)

In this familiar place I know the mystery of your grace. In halting song and word the music of your voice is heard.

For the love that I receive, for the truth that I believe,

I believe,

I praise and thank you for this here and now.

For the love that I receive.....

Among these friends of mine I taste the company devine.

For the love that I receive.....

Within this narrow sphere I learn that you are everywhere.

For the love that I receive.....

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, the God who is, who was, and who is to come. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel:

Matthew 7: 24-29

Mother Meg Harvey

The Lord be with you.

The Lord bless you.

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew.

Praise and glory to God.

‘Everyone then who hears these words of mine and acts on them will be like a wise man who built his house on rock. The rain fell, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house, but it did not fall, because it had been founded on rock. And everyone who hears these words of mine and does not act on them will be like a foolish man who built his house on sand. The rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell—and great was its fall!’

Now when Jesus had finished saying these things, the crowds were astounded at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority, and not as their scribes.

This is the Gospel of Christ.

Praise to Christ the word.

Homily:

Fr Peter Beck

The Creed:

We believe in God the Father, who made the whole world. We believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God, who was born in Bethlehem and lived among us, who died on the cross for us, and rose from the dead.

We believe in the Holy Spirit who brings life and love to us all.

We believe that the Church is one family, and that one day we will share everlasting life with God in heaven. Amen.

Prayers of the People:

James Anderson (Head Boy)

Responses:

Let us pray to the Lord: Lord hear our prayer.

Rest eternal grant unto them, O Lord: And let light perpetual shine upon them.
May they rest in peace and rise with Christ in glory. Amen.

We thank you for Mary, our example of courageous faith, and joy in God's service.
We thank you for her love, and her prayers, and we honour her as we say:

Hail Mary, full of grace; the Lord is with you: blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

God of mercy and compassion, your Word calls us home to faith and love. Accept all we offer you this day; in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord. Blessed be God for ever.

The St. Michael's Church School Hymn:

Marnie Barrell

Michael and the angels keep us;
parish, school, community.
Through the years you form and shape us,
all we were, are now, will be.
God abundantly providing,
here we strive for Jesus' sake, angels fostering and guiding
all the work we undertake.

Church and school together founded in this new Pacific land.
In tradition firmly grounded,
finding here a place to stand.
Here new chances are unfolding,
Christian faith and love to share.
Gospel light and truth upholding,
trusting in God's constant care.

Serving neighbours, serving nation, with the treasures we receive,
in each rising generation
Jesus help us to believe.
Keep our faith alive and growing in these ever-changing days, seeds for God's great harvest sowing,
giving God eternal praise.

Priest:

Pray, sisters and brothers, that our sacrifice may be acceptable to God, the almighty One.

May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands, for the praise and glory of his name, for our good, and the good of all his Church.

Prayer over the Gifts

God of love, accept all we offer you this day. Keep us mindful of the good things that have been passed down to us, and help us in our turn to serve you faithfully all our days. We ask this through Jesus Christ your Son. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving (remain standing)

The Lord is here.

God's Spirit is with us.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. It is right to offer thanks and praise.

God, you made us, and the world and everything in it.

All the good we see comes from you.

You have always loved us but people have not always loved you.

You sent Jesus to show us how to live and to bring us back to you again.

He died for us on the cross so that through your Spirit we can all be your people.

And so with thanks we praise you singing
